License, Refund, AI Disclosure, And Compliance

License

Buyer receives a personal or single-business license to use the delivered report for their own product research and publishing workflow.

Buyer may use the title angles, listing copy starters, checklist, score breakdown, and positioning notes in their own book or digital-product planning.

Buyer may not resell, redistribute, sublicense, or repackage the report template itself as a competing scorecard, report generator, or template product.

Refund Note

Because this is a digital planning asset, refunds are handled case by case for duplicate purchases, failed file access, or delivery errors.

Refunds are not based on whether a book ranks, sells, earns royalties, receives reviews, or gets marketplace approval.

AI Disclosure

This report may be created with AI-assisted drafting, scoring, summarization, and formatting. The buyer should review all content for accuracy, originality, trademark risk, platform rules, and final publishing fit before use.
